
A Profile of the bed of Haerlem River at the Bridge which connects Haerlem with Great Barn Island likewise describing the obstructions in the River occationed by the building and repairing the said Bridge NEW YORK Sept 4th 1813 by

Stephen Willam city Surveyor

For No 1 The yellow line & figures describes the bed of the River & depth of water 100 feet above the Bridge
The red line and figures Do. 50 feet above the Bridge
The dark shaded spaces the Blocks & obstructions under the Bridge
& the black figures the depth of water on those obstructions at ebb tide } at half tide

For No 2. The remarks are the same as in No 1 (except the Obstructions is not shewn) & the distances is the same below the Bridge as No 1 is above
The sounding for No 2 was made at high water

FILE D88.26
xD88.35
(16 x 30 1/2)
ACC. No 167